

The colour shading of each county represents the investment value. Most of the jobs are generated in Belfast, as indicated by the Pie size. "Administrative and support service activities" has the higher portion of generated jobs in this location, however in other counties "Manufacturing" is the main job sector for the new investments.

Geolocation of investments across NI (2013- 2014)

